Results of the Club Championship

Forty-four players teed it up for this year's Club Championship. The format was Individual Medal Play over 54 holes. They played the Babe Zaharias course on Friday and the Eisenhower course on Saturday and Sunday.

There was a Championship Flight, playing from the Blue tees, and a Net flight playing from the White tees. The Low Gross title went to Neil Moore, whose score of 79-76-79=234 edged runner-up Gerry Delgado by a single stroke.

The margin of victory was this close: Neil was the only golfer who shot every round under 80. Gerry had one round of 80, and that was the difference.

The Net Flight winner was Richard Myers, whose incredibly consistent rounds of 74-74-74=222, beat Nathan Ngo by 6 shots.

It wasn't only about the trophy. After all, only one man gets his picture taken. There was money on the table as well - a lot of it. Of the 44 players in the event, 36 of them took home some cash, and 20 of those won more than $100.

All the scores and awards can be found on pages 2-4.

Results of the Pros' Classic

The 2026 Pros' Classic attracted 58 players. The format features individual players competing with their Net score against two Industry Hills professionals' Better Ball Gross score. This year the pros were Frank Garcia and John Kirst, and their Better Ball Gross target score was 5 under par 66 on the Zaharias course.

The low score among the players was Benjamin Wei's 66, but the name of the game is beat the pros, not tie them, so the prize pool was divided among the five lowest scores in each of three flights. All the results, including Skins Games, can be found on pages 7-8.

The Performers year starts with the Fall Classic in November and runs through the Youpa Challenge in October.
